

Lesson 9: Who is the Holy Spirit?

Key Search Words - Spirit, Helper, truth, wisdom

Let's start our search on "Spirit" in the New Testament to find out what Jesus says about the Holy Spirit. The following scriptures should help to explain who Jesus says the Spirit is and how He is our Helper.

Joh 14:16-17

Joh 16:13

So, the Holy Spirit is our personal teacher of the +truth. Jesus says He is someone whom you will know because He will be with you always and will live inside of you. He will remind you, guide you, and speak to you, giving you the understanding of all truth<sup>D</sup> that Jesus declared to us. When we put into practice the knowledge of truth we are given, then that is called +wisdom. So, that means the Holy Spirit will also teach us the wisdom of God.

Psa 51:6

In our previous lessons, we discovered that we show God that we love Him by having a personal relationship with Jesus, and that the two of them are One. Now, in these scriptures, Jesus is saying that we should have a close and personal relationship with the Holy Spirit! So, how does the Holy Spirit fit into the equation to make one God? If Jesus was there from the beginning, then the Holy Spirit must have been there, too. What does the Old Testament say about God's wisdom and Spirit? It is now time to do a search in the Old Testament to find these answers.
