Psa 25:4-5

God wants you look to Jesus to teach you in the way that you should live your life so that you follow in His will and the plan that He has for you. In your relationship with Jesus, God wants Jesus to be your leader. You must follow Jesus wherever He leads you in your life – and that takes trust. Trusting God with all your heart means that you believe that Jesus will take you where you need to go to fulfill God's will for your life, and He will teach you the things that you need to know and do when you get there.

Rom 10:17

Heb 11:6

The life that I live now is not directed by my will and my desires, it is directed by Jesus! Your career or occupation, where you live, your friendships, your finances - all of your life must be directed by Jesus now. You will have to trust that the way Jesus commands you to live in His Word will lead you to righteousness and you must have faith in who He is and what He has promised to give to you.
