Jesus took on all that pain, wounds, bruises, suffering, humiliation, rejection, despair, loneliness, punishment, and condemnation for your healing and salvation. No matter what you have done and no matter what state you are in, if you cry out to Him and ask for His forgiveness, He will forgive you. He has been through it all, so He understands your broken heart and the hurt and pain that you go through. Sometimes we get ourselves into such trouble that we think that it would be impossible for Jesus to forgive us and love us again, but His Word tells us otherwise - if we only believe.
