

All My Strength#5 Pledge - Minister to Others

Loving God with all of my strength means:

I will perform the ministry that Jesus has given me to fulfill by denying myself, teaching His Word, and loving others.

Key Search Words - sacrifice, deny, strength, preach, proclaim, minister*, love

Rom 12:1

Luk 9:23-24

It will take a lot of effort to deny yourself. You have been in control over your body for so long, and the process of sacrificing that control is going to be painful and long. Reprogramming your reactions and your ways of doing things in order to match up with the ways of Jesus is the biggest hurdle that you will face. Surrendering your life to Him and following after Him is what you should desire to do, though, no matter how painful and difficult it will be.

Isa 40:9

Mat 9:35

2Ti 4:1-5

Col 1:25-28

Jesus has given you a ministry to fulfill just like the ministry that He fulfilled while He was here on earth. Living a holy and self-sacrificing life like Him is one part. The second part is to preach and proclaim Jesus to others and the hope that He gives. This also includes teaching others how to love Him and how to have a relationship with Him. That is the only way others will know and be confident of the truth. He will give strength to your voice in order for you to proclaim that He is God.

Joh 15:12

Eph 5:1-2

The third part is to walk in love just as He did. You need to reach out to others with the love of Jesus. Loving others like Jesus did is going to take a lot of effort. Your selfish nature doesn't always want to react to others in love. Learning how to love others the way Jesus did is the next lesson that we must learn.
